Kensington, June 1.

THE Two following Addresses were presented to Her Majesty by Hugh Boscawen Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Cornwal.

To our most Serene and August Sovereign, ANNE, Queen of Great Britain, &c.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Burgesses, and other Principal Inhabitants, of the Town of Falmouth, in the County of Cornwal.

MAY it please Your Sacred Majesty, to permit us, Your Majesty's most dutifully devoted Subjects, (though later than others) with no less Loyalty and due Sense of the innumerable Blessings we enjoy under Your most auspicious and benign Government, humbly to congratulate on what we hope will most especially conduce to the Completion of the Happiness of this ever Illustrious Isle of Great Britain, (viz.) the Union of its Nations and Kingdoms. Your Majesty's Royal Ancestor of ever Blessed Memory, King James the First, had a pious Desire and seeming Prospect of its Accomplishment, when he chose for his Motto the Prediction of the Prophet Ezekiel, concerning the Incorporation of Israel with Judah: But now, after an Hundred Years frustrate Endeavours, we see it as joyfully as wonderfully fulfilled; we behold (as in that Prophesy) the dry Bones as 'twere to revive, and the Two Sticks to conjoin with a redoubled Glory and Strength; and beg Leave to proclaim to the World (with all other good Subjects) our hearty Wishes and Prayers, and Hopes, That (as 'tis in the Sequel of that Prophesy) so in this happy Accomplishment, the final Result will be triumphantly Great and Glorious, (the late Successes of Your Majesty's and High Allies Arms confirming us therein;) That the Kingdom of Christ shall thereby be exalted, the Malice of Gog frustrated, and all its Armies, with that of Magog defeated, whilst our Israel is gathered by God's everlasting Favour and Protection.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Justice, Aldermen, Assistants, and other Inhabitants, of Your Majesty's Town of Penzance, in the County of Cornwal.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE quickest Sense of Duty and Gratitude move us to acknowledge the invaluable Blessings of Your Majesty's auspicious Reign over us: And when we see one happy Year bring forth what a Century attempted in vain, permit us (Dread Sovereign) to approach Your Sacred Person with our Congratulations upon this so long desired Occasion, the happy Union of Your Two Kingdoms; a Work peculiarly reserved by Providence to compleat Your other glorious Atchievements.

We humbly and heartily pray, That Your flourishing Reign may be very long; and that nothing may be wanting to make You the happiest, as most deservedly You are the most belov'd, Monarch upon Earth.

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Representatives in Parliament, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, and Approved Men, of Her Majesty's ancient Town of Guldeford in the County of Surrey: Presented to Her Majesty by Mr. Fulham, Recorder of the said Town. Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sunderland, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, glad of all Opportunities to make our grateful Acknowledgments for the many distinguishing Blessings we enjoy under Your Administration, beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesty upon the late happy Conclusion of an Union between Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland.

Princes in former Ages extended their Ambition to Victories and Triumphs: 'Tis Your Majesty's greater Glory to employ Your Victorious Arms not only to preserve the Established Religion and Government of Great Britain, but the Protestant Interest and Balance of Power in Europe.

We are so sensible of the great Advantages we enjoy under Your Majesty's wise Administration, that we take this Occasion to present Your most Excellent Majesty with our Assurances to contribute our utmost Endeavours to make effectual all the Advantages proposed to Great Britain by the Union of England and Scotland; and to pray for Your long and happy Reign over us.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, assembled at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace held for the County of Northampton, at the Town of Northampton, the 22d of April, 1707. and of the Clergy, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders, of the said County: Presented to Her Majesty by Sir Richard Newman, High Sheriff of the said County: Introduc'd by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE at this time beg Leave to approach Your Majesty with our unexpressible Sense of Gratitude for Your great Care and Wisdom, in bringing to pass the so long desir'd Union of Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland; by which You have taken from the Common Enemy the ancient way of disturbing the Peace and Tranquility of this Island, and effectually establish'd the Crown in the Protestant Line: And we question not, but by Your Majesty's tender Regard to all Your Subjects, Rome it self will be convinc'd, that it is no longer in her Power, under Pretence of Religion, fatally to divide, for her Service, the Protestants of Great Britain; and that the Minds and Affections of Your People will be for ever hereafter united.

What Impression this will make in all the Reformed Churches abroad, need not be mentioned, since the whole World must know, it places Your Majesty at the Head of them, as well as fixes You firmly in their Hearts.

That Almighty God will continue to Your Majesty His accustomed Blessings of Prosperity at Home, Victory over Your Enemies Abroad, and a long Reign over us, are the Prayers of, &c.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy, of the Diocese of Exeter: Presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Rev. Father in God, Jonathan Lord Bishop of Exeter; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please Your most Sacred Majesty,

THE happy Union of the Kingdoms of England and Scotland, so long the earnest Wish and fruitless Attempt of former Reigns, is now with real Joy acknowledg'd by Your People the Strength and Glory of Your Majesty.

We adore the good Providence of Almighty God, in giving this eminent Success to the Wisdom of Your Councils, and to the Steddiness and Conduct of Your Ministers in so great a Work; without which the honourable Peace for which Your Majesty contends abroad, with so much Glory and Prosperity, would have been at home, in all humane Appearance, to Your divided Subjects, at best an unsecure, and therefore very doubtful Blessing.

And as we humbly beg Leave to congratulate this prosperous Effect of Your Majesty's unwearied Vigilance and Care for the present and future Happiness of all Your Subjects; so we presume to assure Your Majesty of our exact Obedience to Your Royal Commands, in endeavouring sincerely to promote that Union of Affections which You have had the Goodness to recommend to all Orders and Degrees of Men amongst us, as the needful Cement to this mighty Structure, and which we take to be especially the peculiar and proper Duty of Men in that Rank which we hold in the Church, under Your most gracious Majesty's assured Protection and Supremacy.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of Your Majesty's ever loyal Corporation of Penzance in Cornwal: Presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

PErmit us, Most Gracious Sovereign, from the Lands End of Great Britain, and from the bottom of our Hearts, amidst the Throng of Addresses, already laid at Your Royal Feet, to congratulate Your Majesty on the UNION of Your Two Kingdoms; a Work so difficult in its nature, so long desired, often in vain attempted, and at last so happily concluded.

The

The Remoteneſs of our Situation from the Royal Perſon of a Queen, ſo good to Her People, ſo bountiful to our County in general, and ſo provident in a moſt particular manner for our Preſervation, amidſt the Fears and Inſults we daily lay under from the common Enemy, muſt plead our Excuſe for being ſo late in expreſſing the intire Satisfaction we enjoy in this and every good Work that adorns Your Majeſty's glorious Reign over us: We eſteem it no ſmall Happineſs to find ſo many of our Corniſh Members concurrent in ſo good a Work; we are no leſs happy that our County can boaſt it ſelf in furniſhing the beſt Manager of Your Majeſty's and the Nations Treaſure that Old England ever had, or Great Britain can produce.

We ſhall always rejoice in every Opportunity of expreſſing our Gratitude to Your Majeſty; we ſhall continue ever Loyal to Your Service, firmly adhere to the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſh'd, pray for Your Majeſty's long and proſperous Reign over us; and not only avoid, but oppoſe, all Heats and Animoſities which may divide or weaken Your Great Monarchy and the Intereſt of Your People.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed our Common Seal to be hereto affix'd, and have hereto ſet our Hands the 22d Day of May, in the Sixth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Commonalty, of Her Majeſty's ancient and loyal Corporation of the Borough of Ipſwich in the County of Suffolk: Preſented to Her Majeſty by William Thomſon Eſq; Recorder of the ſaid Borough. Introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

HAving great Reaſon to be ſenſible that Your Majeſty takes Delight in doing Good to Your Subjects, we humbly preſume, that a dutiful Expreſſion of their Gratitude for Your affectionate Care of them will not be unacceptable.

Therefore we take Leave herein to offer our moſt humble Acknowledgments for the many remarkable Inſtances of Your Regard to our Welfare and Happineſs, particularly that of Uniting Your Kingdoms of England and Scotland. And as we enjoy the Benefits of that, with other Bleſſings, ſo our Felicity entitles Your Majeſty to our utmoſt Endeavours for the Continuance of Your Proſperity and Glory.

The moſt humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Governor, Aſſiſtants, Common Council, and other Free Inhabitants, within the Borough of Dorcheſter: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Awnſham Churchill Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, Lord Privy Seal, and High Steward of that Borough.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE late happy Union between Your Majeſty's Kingdoms of England and Scotland, (often unſucceſsfully attempted by Your Royal Predeceſſors) now gloriouſly accompliſhed in Your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, gives juſt Occaſion, and animates us ſincerely and unanimouſly to congratulate Your Majeſty's unparallel'd Prudence and Conduct; the effecting of which great Work carries therewith ſuch an advantagious Importance to both Nations, and conſequently muſt baffle and confound the Intrigues from France, in former Reigns too frequent put in Practice.

For a further Manifeſtation of Gratitude, (diffuſed in our Spirits by this Conjunction) it's our Wiſh, That Your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies may be always victorious and formidable, to reduce and break the inſulting Meaſures of Your Majeſty's Enemies; and that Your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long and proſperous, for Security of the Proteſtant Religion, and Liberties of this united Iſland of Great Britain. Given under our Hands the 26th Day of May, in the Sixth Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliff and Burgeſſes of Her Majeſty's ancient Borough of Aldeborough, in the County of York: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Robert Monckton and William Jeſſopp Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, Lord Privy Seal.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE wonderful and ſurprizing Effects which continually flow from Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, give us every Day freſh Occaſions of Congratulation and Joy. We are highly ſenſible of the many Benefits we may juſtly expect to receive from the perfecting of that Union which hath been ſo often attempted in vain by Your Majeſty's Predeceſſors; which great Work, and the Stop You have put by Your Arms to that Torrent of Tyranny and Oppreſſion, which as well threatened the Liberties of Your People at home, as thoſe of the reſt of Europe, are ſuch Inſtances of Your prudent Foreſight and Care, in preventing and obviating of all Inconveniencies that may happen to Your Subjects, or even to their Poſterity; of Your tender Regard for the Welfare and Happineſs, and of the Ability, Integrity and Diligence, of Your well choſen Miniſtry, as no Hiſtory can parallel; and ſhew, That that peculiar Felicity hath been reſerved for Your Majeſty, which the moſt powerful and wiſeſt of Princes have not hitherto been able to attain to, to place Your chief Satisfaction in exerting Your Wiſdom and Power for the Good of Mankind, and not for their Oppreſſion. This, Madam, hath crowned all the reſt of Your Royal Virtues, and will eſtabliſh an indelible Veneration for Your great Name in the Hearts and Minds of all wiſe and good Men, in this preſent and all Ages to come.

That Your Majeſty may long continue a Bleſſing to the World, and to Your People, is the Prayer of Your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Common Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants, of the Corporation of Graveſend and Milton, in the County of Kent: Preſented to Her Majeſty by the Hon. Lieutenant-General Cholmondeley, Governor of Graveſend and Tilbury-Fort.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

THE many ſignal Bleſſings which we and all Your Subjects enjoy under Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Government, are of ſo diſtinguiſhing a Nature, that they cannot but juſtly challenge from us a more than common Acknowledgment. We have already had frequent Occaſions to bleſs and adore the Divine Providence, that has placed Your Majeſty on the Throne of Your Anceſtors, and has ſo often crown'd with Succeſs and Victory thoſe Arms which Your Majeſty has employ'd abroad, for the Safety and Welfare of Europe, under the Conduct of Your great General, the Duke of Marlborough. And we have now a freſh Occaſion given us to throw our ſelves at Your Majeſty's feet, and humbly to congratulate Your Majeſty on the wonderful Accompliſhment of the Union of Your Two ancient Kingdoms of England and Scotland; a Work ſo often in vain attempted by Your Royal Predeceſſors, but reſerved by Providence to be perfected in Your Majeſty's moſt glorious Reign.

May the ſame Almighty Providence long continue to protect Your ſacred Life, with that of Your Royal Conſort the Prince of Denmark; to bleſs and preſerve Your Government at home; to proſper Your Arms abroad; and thereby to make You the glorious Inſtrument of eſtabliſhing a ſafe, an honourable, and a laſting Peace throughout all Europe.

The humble Addreſs of Her Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Conſtable, Headboroughs, and others, of the ancient Borough of Steyning, in the County of Suſſex: Preſented to Her Majeſty by William Wallis Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament; introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Hertford, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Conſtable, Headboroughs, and others, of Your ancient Borough of Steyning, in the County of Suſſex, being very ſenſible, that the many Bleſſings we have received, with the reſt of our Fellow Subjects, under the auſpicious Reign of Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, are, under God, all owing to Your moſt wiſe and prudent Government, and the faithful Diſcharge of Your Miniſtry.

Bleſſings without Example, but the happy Union of England and Scotland: A Work of that Nature, although for many Years endeavoured by Your Royal Predeceſſors, yet never could be effected but by Your Majeſty.

And as Your Majeſty has compleated the happy Union of the Two Nations, ſo it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavours to unite amongſt our ſelves, which, under God and Your Sacred Majeſty, will make Great Britain happy; the vain Hopes, as to the Succeſſion, from diſaffected Perſons, being now vaniſhed.

And as Your Majeſty's Arms has been beyond Example ſucceſsful, under the Valour and Conduct of Your great General the Duke of Marlborough; may Providence always have Your Sacred Perſon, them, and Your Fleets, under His Protection, that they may return with a firm and laſting Peace, to the Glory of Your Majeſty, and the Happineſs of Your People.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Great Grimsby: Preſented to Her Majeſty by Arthur Moor and William Conteſworth Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

AMongſt the reſt of Your dutiful Subjects, we, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council and Burgeſſes, of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Great Grimsby in the County of Lincoln, crave Leave, with the deepeſt Senſe of Joy and Gratitude, to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon a Bleſſing reſerved by Providence to Your fortunate Reign, of having United Your Two Kingdoms of England and Scotland; with which Noble Deſign Your Great Grandfather began the laſt Century, as Your Majeſty did begin begin the present: But what that Prince was not able to compass during a Profound Peace, Your Majesty's high Wisdom has brought about in the Heat of an extended War; which great Work plainly demonstrates, that Your Majesty's Royal Care is entirely employed for the Good of Your own Subjects, and the Peace and Quiet of Europe.

May Your Majesty long reign Queen of Great Britain; and may You always be served by such wise and faithful Ministers as You now are: May Your Treasure be as well manag'd, and Your Armies as well conducted: So shall we, amongst the rest of Your Subjects, be the happiest People.

The humble Address of the Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and others, Freeholders of the County of Brecon: Presented to Her Majesty by the Hon. Major Ashburnham, in the Absence of the Rt. Hon. John Lord Ashburnham, Custos Rotulorum of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

MADAM,

WE cannot remain in Silence any longer, tho' we still want Words to express the Joys we feel in the Greatness of Your Majesty, and to describe our ardent Wishes for the Continuation and daily Encrease of it.

We acknowledge our Happiness under the Protection of the most powerful and best of Queens: Your Wisdom has found Means to unite Your People of Great Britain at home: Your Councils and Your Arms are settling with Success the Safety and Liberties of Europe.

Blessings and Glories like these seem to have been reserv'd for Your Majesty's Reign only, as a Reward of that Piety and Virtue that have always shone so eminently bright in Your Sacred Person.

Permit us then, most Gracious Sovereign, most humbly and dutifully to Congratulate Your Majesty's Successes and Glory in all Your Affairs and Actions, and to lay at Your Royal Feet our sincerest Praises and best Services; beseeching the Almighty to grant unto Your Majesty Length of Days, in perfect Health, as the most sensible Blessing and Happiness of all Your People.

The humble Address of the Portreeve and chief Inhabitants of Her Majesty's ancient Borough of Ashburton in the County of Devon, has also been presented to Her Majesty.

To the most Excellent Majesty of ANNE, by the Grace of God, Queen of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Our most Gracious and Dread Sovereign.

WE acknowledge our selves, most mighty Princess, unable to celebrate, as we ought, the marvelous and stupendious Productions of Your Majesty's most glorious Reign, which we behold with Wonder and Astonishment: But nothing so much as the surprizing and most happy Event of Your Majesty's unwearied Endeavours to unite this Your Renowned (but till now divided) Island of Great Britain. Who but Your Majesty would have been discouraged from encountering the Difficulties which had frustrated all former Attempts? What Wisdom but that of Your Majesty's could have made such a Choice of able and faithful Instruments, to contrive and conduct to a Happy Issue such an Important Affair? And what Prince ever before sate on Your Royal Throne that equall'd Your Majesty, in making Merit the only distinguishing Mark of advancing any to the Publick Service. 'Tis to this we owe, most Dread Sovereign, (under God) this great and wonderful Blessing of our happy Union, and the many others we enjoy under Your Majesty's most auspicious and unparallel'd Government; for which we most humbly offer, with the utmost Gratitude, all that we are, and all that we have, as a just Tribute from the most dutiful and obedient Subjects, to the greatest and best of Queens. Dated and Signed in Ashburton the 13th of May, 1707.

All which Addresses Her Majesty received very graciously.

Constantinople, March 12. N. S. The Tartars are very uneasy under a Peace, which restrains them from making Incursions into Muscovy or Poland. They have some Years endeavour'd, by all manner of Artifices to alarm the Port with Jealousies against the Muscovites, and engage them to a Rupture with that Nation. The Tartar-Han lately sent hither his First Minister for that Purpose; but his Insinuations had no other Effect than the deposing of his Master; the Port having sent the Emperor's First Master of the Horse with a Commission for a new Cham. However these Importunities have awaken'd the Turks, and put them upon fortifying their Frontiers. They last Year finished the Castle of Kersi, which commands the Passage of the Streights of Crimea into the Black Sea, and began the Fortification of Bender, situate on the Mouth of the River Niester, which they now continue; and for that purpose 4 Frigats are already sailed thither, with Provisions, Artillery, Arms and Ammunition. The Princes of Wallachia and Moldavia were order'd thither with 2000 Men each, to work at the Fortifications; but they have ransom'd themselves from that Service. Besides this Provision for the Security of the Confines, the chief Application of the Ministers has been of late to bring the Finances into good Order; which Oeconomy has made them able to supply their Magazines, and recruit their Soldiery as often as is requisite; and has given Occasion to some Jealousies, that the Porte is inclined to make a Diversion in Hungary in Favour of France; though we have all possible Assurances, that there is not the least Ground for any such Suspicion.

The French Ambassador often remits Money, by Way of Belgarde or Wallachia, into Hungary; but it is observed, that the Sums are neither so frequent or large as heretofore.

The Capitan Pasha will go this Summer, with the Gallies and the greatest Part of the Ships, into the Archipelago and Mediterranean; to keep those Seas clear of the Maltese, and gather the usual Tribute from that Island.

Barcelona, May 3. N. S. The King labours with great Application at the retrieving of his late Losses in Valentia. He is drawing together all the Force he is able to put a stop to the Enemy, and hinder any Irruption into Catalonia. There are in this Country Eight Battalions of his Majesty's regular Troops, and above Two thousand Horse, besides Six English Battalions, and Three Dutch, that were not in the late Action. These, in conjunction with the Recruits from Lisbon, and the Forces under the Lord Galway, will form above Twenty Battalions of regular Troops, and about Six thousand Horse; which, with the Militia of Catalonia, that is numerous, and well disciplin'd, may be able to keep the Enemy at a stand till the arrival of fresh Reinforcements. It is said, we are to assemble on the Banks of the Ebro, in order to intrench there, and oppose the Passage of the Enemy over that River.

Lisbon, June 1. N. S. His Portuguese Majesty, notwithstanding the late ill Success of his Troops in Spain, and the Solicitations of the Enemy, has been pleased to give Assurances to the Minister of the Queen of Great Britain of his Resolution to continue firm in the Alliance, and to act with Vigour for the Good of the Common Cause. The Duke of Ossuna having got together a small Body of Troops, most of 'em drawn out of the Garisons of Cadiz and Port St. Mary, has laid Siege to Serpa, an inconsiderable Town on the Frontiers of the Algarve, which, we hear, after a Siege of Eight Days, is on the Point of capitulating. The young Marquis das Minas is thereupon order'd to return from Beira into Alentejo with the Forces under his Command, consisting of 2000 Foot and 1000 Horse; and, according to our last Advices, has repassed the River Tagus, with a Design to continue his March towards the Enemy.

Copenhagen, May 28. Count Ravenrlau, who was in the Emperor's Service in Italy, was admitted last Wednesday into the honourable Order of the Elephant, receiving the Blue Ribon from the King's own Hand. Our Muscovite Ambassador's Brother, who was taken by a Swedish Party on his Way from Berlin to Poland, and suppos'd to be releas'd, is still in Custody.

Berlin, May 28. We have receiv'd Letters this Evening, of the 25th, from Breslau, which say, the Muscovites who were on the Rhine were marching with all possible Expedition through Bohemia and Moravia; and it is thought they may be at present not far from Cracow. Their Marches are made with so much Secrecy, that they move only in the Night. Some of the Emperor's Ministers at Breslau having had Notice, That Monsieur Bonac was sending 10 large Wagons from Dantzick to Hungary, laden with Arms and Ammunition, and guarded by 40 Men, gave Advice of it to the Muscovite General Rheen, who, according to their Desire, had the Wagons seiz'd near Thorn, distributed the Arms among his Troops, and threatened to hang the Wagoners for having counterfeited Muscovite Passes.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Meldert, June 6. On the 3d Instant the Count de Goes, his Imperial Majesty's Minister at the Hague, came hither to confer with my Lord Duke of Marlborough upon the present Situation of Affairs, and in the Evening went back to Louvain, in order to return to the Hague. The same Day Lieutenant-General Fagel was order'd into Flanders, where he is to command a Body of 12 Battalions, to be drawn from the neighbouring Garisons, in order to observe the Enemy, and oppose any Attempt they may make on that side.

Our
